ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

RABBI ALVIN WAINHAUS

• Mr. LIEBERMAN. Mr. President, I rise today to honor Rabbi Alvin Wainhaus of Congregation Or Shalom in Orange, Connecticut. On March 19th and 20th, he will be honored by Congregation Or Shalom on his 18th anniversary as spiritual leader of the synagogue.

This is a significant milestone for Rabbi Wainhaus and his congregation. Through his leadership at Congregation Or Shalom he has constantly worked to reach out to every member of the congregation, young and old, and keep them involved in all aspects of congregation life. He has particularly reached out to young adults as they have left home for college and careers in order to keep them connected to their families and community.

He has helped provide guidance and insight to innumerable people not just at Congregation Or Shalom but within the community as a whole. We currently face difficult times, and it is our families and friends, combined with our churches and synagogues, that provide the support systems which allow us to confront and overcome the challenges set before us. Through his service, Rabbi Wainhaus has helped many families over the years surmount these obstacles and make positive contributions to their communities.

As this congregation has grown over the years, with God's divine assistance, Rabbi Wainhaus has touched many lives throughout the community. The people of Connecticut thank Rabbi Wainhaus for his service, dedication, and contribution to our state.●

TAX TREATMENT FOR DOMESTIC DISTILLERIES

• Mr. BUNNING. Mr. President, today I signed on as a cosponsor of S. 434, Senator BREAUX's proposal to equalize the tax treatment for domestic distilleries compared to their foreign competitors.

This is a good bill, and I hope it passes Congress. It would help cut unnecessary taxes for our domestic distilleries, and eliminate a competitive
